Two Individuals Found Deceased and One Person in Custody City of Oak Park, Oak Park, Michigan

September 15, 2016, 9 a.m., Oak Park, Michigan - Two females are deceased and one male is in custody after Oak Park Public Safety Officers were dispatched to the 21000 block of Church Street in Oak Park, Mich., on Wednesday, September 14. The Oak Park Public Safety Department does not believe the public is in any further danger.

On Wednesday, September 14 at approximately 7 p.m., Oak Park Public Safety Officers were dispatched to the 21000 block of Church Street on a call. Upon arrival, the officers found two deceased individuals. While some officers were investigating the scene, the person of interest walked into the Oak Park Public Safety Department lobby and turned himself into custody.

No further details are available at this time while the matter is under full investigation. Out of courtesy to the parties involved, we kindly ask that the public and the media refrain from publishing the names of the deceased, if known, until family and friends can be properly notified. Our thoughts and condolences to the family and friends of all parties involved.
